AN ANNOUNCEMENT OF UNUSUAL INTEREST.

June Sale of WOMEN'S AND MISSES'

Summer Dresses, Suits, Waists and Skirts.

We inaugurate to-day the most extensive sale of Women's Ready-to-wear Summer Apparel We Have Ever Held.

OOL, dainty garments for every hour of the day and for every need. Inexpensive little Morning Dresses, Pretty "Trot-about" Suits and Dresses, loveliest models for afternoon and dressy occasions A bewildering variety of picturesque, dainty summer wearables, so broad in the scope of styles and fabrics that practically every taste and idea of the woman who desires to be fashionably attired for any occasion can be met.

> An offering truly interesting to the prospective bride, the summer vacationist, and the woman of refined, conservative tastes.

As indicated, some of the garments were bought at decided price advantages, due to various reasons others are newly priced in the regrouping of incomplete and broken assortments of our own stock-in every instance the saving is genuine.

> A sale of unusual interest and importance-planned with a view to serving our patrons with the least possible expense-evidence of which is to be seen in every garment.

The prices are from one-fourth to one-third less than regular.

ALEXANDER THE GREAT.

"How big was Alexander, pa, that people call him great?" "My son, he used to swat the ball whene'er it crossed the plate. I've seen him knock it half a mile, and thereby save the game; no wonder that the nations ring with Alexander's fame. I've seen him in a crucial place leap twenty cubits high, and claw the blooming firmament to catch a whizzing fly. In all departments of the game he is a honeybird, and would-be rivals seem to me incompetent, absurd. I've seen him plunge for seven yards, then slide upon his face until the umpire called him safe at third or second base. I've seen the fans stand on their heads and tear their clothes and howl when Alexander jumped the fence and nailed a soaring foul. The conduct of our public schools is sure a thing of shame, when growing youths have never heard of Alexander's fame. Our educators should reform; their system's out of plumb; they'll have to hump themselves and change their whole curriculum."

SEMI-FINALS AT

McClung and Doyle Defeat Tennis Opponents.

Splendid matches marked the annua spring tennis tournament of the Chevy Chase Club yesterday and one of the largest crowds of the season was pre-sent. The second and third rounds were completed and the semi-finals in th men's singles will be played this after-noon. The men's doubles and the ladles' singles started yesterday afternoon, as well as the men's consolations.

The match that attracted the most at

The match that attracted the most attention came in the second round of the men's singles when Harold E. Doyle, of the Bachelors' Club, defeated J. Upshur Moorhead, of the Chevy Chase Club, after three interesting sets, by 5-4, 3-4, and 5-4. The match was especially close, and showed both players at their best.

their best.

Another good match was between Lee McClung, Treasurer of the United States and W. B. Isard, the former winning after thirty-two hard-fought games, by 4-6, 5-4, and 7-5. This match was also close and at the beginning of the third set, after each had one to their credit, Isard showed an improvement especially in speed, and it was only his persistence and steadiness that McClung finally won out after many games went by the "duce" route.

G. F. fouchard, of New York, metropolitan champion, strived in Washington yesterday and had an exciting practice match with Connie B. Doyle. Touch ard won the opening set by $-2, Doyle ard won the opening set by $-2, Doyle
